

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
TASK FORCE 20
1930 14th ST
FORT POLK, LA 17459

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

15DEC2025

TO: ALL PERSONNEL

FROM: COL J. FORD, COMMANDING OFFICER, TASK FORCE 20

SUBJECT: ENTRY REQUIREMENTS & UNIT EXPECTATIONS

1. APPLICABILITY. This memorandum applies to all Department of Defense personnel, Other Government Agency (OGA) personnel, and Civilian contractors assigned to Task Force 20.

2. SCOPE. This memorandum outlines the entry requirements, expectations, rules, and regulations to which all personnel assigned to Task Force 20 are subject.

3. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS. The following prerequisites are mandatory for members and applicants of Task Force 20. Failure to comply constitutes a direct violation of the signed agreement outlined in this memorandum and may lead to disciplinary action.

- (A) AGE. All Task Force 20 applicants and members must be at least 18 years of age at the time of the signing of this memorandum.
- (B) LANGUAGE. All Task Force 20 applicants and members must be fluent in the English language.
- (C) ARMA 3. All Task Force 20 applicants and members must have a legal working copy of Arma 3 and the ability to install mods.
- (D) MICROPHONE. All Task Force 20 applicants and members must have a quality working microphone.

4. ENTRY EXPECTATIONS. This section outlines the expectations cadre will have of all candidates during initial entry training.

- (A) SALUTES, HONORS, AND CURTESY. All candidates will be required to follow Army Regulation 600–25 (linked here) during initial entry training, to include:
 - (1) SALUTING. All candidates are required to salute when they meet and recognize persons entitled to the salute. Personnel will not salute indoors, except when reporting to a superior officer.

(2) ATTENTION & PARADE REST. Candidates must stand at parade rest when speaking to any non-commissioned officer and the position of attention when speaking to any commissioned officers. Candidates must also call these positions when a higher-ranking commissioned or non-commissioned officer enters the room.

(3) ADDRESSING SUPERIORS. Candidates shall address all commissioned and non-commissioned officers by their rank and last name.

(B) PUNCTUALITY. All candidates will be expected to be present and prepared no less than 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start of any initial entry training. Any candidate who is unable to attend a scheduled initial training session is expected to notify the cadre as soon as possible.

(C) ATTENDANCE. All candidates are expected to attend all initial entry training sessions. If an applicant is unable to attend an initial entry training session, he or she must attend a makeup session to continue initial entry training. Failure to attend a make-up session or missing more than two regular initial entry sessions will result in the candidate being dropped from initial entry training.

(D) ATTENTION TO DETAIL. Candidates are expected to follow every instruction given to them. Failure to follow instructions may result in immediate dismissal from initial entry training.

5. NO CAUSE. This section serves as notice that any candidate may be denied entry into Task Force 20 at any point during initial entry training for any reason deemed appropriate by Task Force 20 cadre or command staff. Candidates are also not entitled to any explanation for reasons of denial and are not entitled to appeal a denial decision.

6. GENERAL EXPECTATIONS. This section outlines the expectations Task Force 20 command staff will have of all members after completion of initial entry training. The following expectations are intended to serve as a guideline and are not “all-inclusive”.

- A. ACCOUNTABILITY. Accountability is a non-negotiable for all members of Task Force 20. Members must take extreme accountability for their actions, time management, and shortcomings.
- B. PROFESSIONALISM. All members of Task Force 20 are required to act professionally at all times. Failure to act in a manner befitting their rank and position may result in disciplinary action.
- C. CUSTOMS & COURTESIES. All members of Task Force 20 will be expected to adhere to Army Regulation 600–25 (linked here) during official ceremonies, battalion-level formations, and when otherwise ordered by the commanding officer of Task Force 20.
- D. COMMUNICATION. The ability to communicate is key to success within Task Force 20. Members are expected to keep their teammates and chain of command informed of all major events that impact unit affairs on both a large and small scale.
- E. REALISM. All members of Task Force 20 are required to prioritize immersion and realism while in-game or conducting his or her duties.

7. AGREEMENT. All members and applicants must agree to the entry requirements, expectations, rules, and regulations mentioned above. Failure to agree will result in immediate application denial or discharge from Task Force 20.

J. Ford

J. Ford, Colonel, United States Army
Commanding Officer
Task Force 20